FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

NACSCORP Makes Contribution to United Way

April 7, 2009 (OBERLIN, OHIO) – NACSCORP, a subsidiary of the National Association of College Stores (NACS), donated $1,500 of proceeds from a recent book sale to United Way of Greater Lorain County. NACSCORP also donated a large number of books to Save Our Children and Neighborhood House, agency partners of United Way.

On Feb. 21, NACSCORP held its first public book sale on a receiving dock set up as a bookstore. Both the public and employees were invited to browse hundreds of children's books, college textbooks, fiction and classic literature books, and more.

NACS, NACSCORP, and PartnerShip, also a subsidiary of NACS, have a long tradition of supporting United Way of Greater Lorain County. In 2008, NACS Inc. worked with United Way to raise $1,269 during its Fall Festival. NACS Inc. employees also participated by planting flowers at the Oberlin Senior Center, delivering supplies collected in the Save the Children School Supply Drive, and setting up a nature center for local Girl Scouts. Overall NACS was privileged to provide in excess of $37,000.00 to the UW 2008 campaign.

About NACSCORP
